

If a show is not captioned, I, along with several million other Americans who are deaf/hard of hearing, simply cannot watch it. Watching a show or movie without being able to hear/read the dialog is like playing tennis without a ball. Accuracy is also important. A missed word or two is inevitable, but several lines of gibberish and completely missed areas of conversation are inexcusable. Please require and enforce correct closed captioning on all tv programming.